

Date: 07/10 2:03 PM

From: Terry O'Connell, terrenceoconnell@compuserve.com

[Terry, one of the world authorities on Restorative Justice and protagonist in the documentary FACING THE DEMONS, joined us by phone from Australia in our post film discussion]

Dear Bruce,

Glad that your great efforts were rewarded. It would have been great sitting with your group as talking on a telephone link is a very different experience.

I am always fascinated when I 'come across' folk like yourself who are just ordinary folk wanting to do some extra-ordinary things like bringing others together as a way of making the world a better place. You and those like you who make the effort, take the risk, dare to push the boundaries are what makes what I do, worthwhile. So thanks and perhaps one day we might meet in Canada.....

Good luck with your great work.

Warm regards

--

Terry O'Connell
