Re: Fetching Cody

Dear Bruce,

Thanks again for including Fetching Cody and myself in your Movie Mondays program. I can honestly say that it was one of the most fulfilling screenings I have ever attended, with probably the best Q&A sessions ever.

Please keep up the great work, you are a pleasure to deal with, and I feel the Movie Monday experience is a really important addition to the cultural landscape. The concept that mental health is more than medication, but a broader approach that includes the arts as well, is something that I hold dear.

As of this writing, I am busy dreaming up other ideas that may have the good fortune to be invited to a Movie Monday one day in the future. Thanks for the inspiration.

Best wishes,
